

Segulah #2 for Protection

In Sefer Amtahat Benyamin (page 29, Ot Zayin), it is written:

Tov Meod Sh'yikra B'khol Yom Hasira Ha'azinu...

Ki Yesh Bah MAG Pesukim V'sodo Gadol V'rahm.

V'al Yadel Zeh Lo Yusar Hatzelem Elokim M'alaiv,

V'lo Ya'ara Lo Shoom Ra B'olam B'olto Hayom.

Translation: "It is very good for one to recite every day the Song of Moses (Parashat Ha'azinu, Deut. 32:1-43). Herein there are 43 verses that contain an awesome and great secret. One who recites these verses daily will be assured that the "tzelem Elokim" (the image of G-d in which we were created) will never be lacking from him. Also, no harm at all will befall one on the day we recites this."

Like the segulah of the RaMBaN, this segulah requires the mere reading of verses of Torah. Do not underestimate their value. It was through the Torah that HaShem created the universe. When we read the Torah, we are repeating those words that HaShem Himself spoke. We also reverberate the essential foundations of creation and turn them to our good.

When coupled with proper behavior and a good personality, these segulot can work wonders in one's life. One warning though, a segulah only works for those who sincerely desire to walk the path to HaShem and thus by definition observe the mitzvot (both Benei Torah and Benei Noah).

May HaShem bless us all that we change our behavior and be the best individuals we can be (Benei Torah and Benei Noah), created in G-d's image and charged to act accordingly.
